

Best Places to Work taps 25 finalists

Business Courier of Cincinnati - 11:20 AM EDT Wednesday, September 19, 2007

Twenty-five area companies have made the cut in the Business Courier's fifth annual Greater Cincinnati's Best Places to Work competition.

The finalists are: ADP Inc.; Alternate Solutions HomeCare; Baker Concrete Construction Inc.; Barnes Dennig & Co Ltd.; Bridge Logistics Inc.; Busken Bakery; CBS Personnel Holdings; Centric Consulting LLC; Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center; Cincinnati Marriott NE; Cincinnati Marriott North; Cooperative Business Services LLC; Deloitte; DunhumbyUSA; Mayfield Clinic and Spine Institute; Mid-American Financial Group; Paycor Inc.; Phillips Edison & Co.; Process Plus LLC; Quadrata Inc.; Sogeti; St. Elizabeth Medical Center; Christ Hospital; Total Quality Logistics; and Truepoint Capital LLC.

The companies will be honored Nov. 8 at a luncheon, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center. Cincinnati TV personality Brian Patrick will host the event.

A morning session, focusing on how human resources departments can engage their work forces, will feature Richard Hadden, co-author of "Contented Cows Give Better Milk," and "Contented Cows Moove Faster," along with a panel of former Best Places to Work winners.

The presenting sponsor for the program is Dinsmore & Shohl LLP. Other sponsors include: Right Management Consultants, OKI/Rideshare, Ernst and Young and Quantum Market Research. Mercer is the sponsor for the morning session.
